Objective of the event	The purpose of celebrating Women's Day is – To raise awareness about the status and dignity of women among the students. The day highlighted the importance of women, the role of women and her greatness in every sphere of our life. The gathering was extended a gracious welcome, with a graceful welcome.
Description of the event	Today, the Women's Day celebration began with a beautiful and thoughtful prayer. Mrs. K. Meena, Assistant Professor, Department of Biochemistry & Women Cell Coordinator, felicitated the Speaker of the programme and addressed the guest speaker. Mrs. Preetha Jagadeesh, motivational talker, delivered an excellent talk to raise awareness about the fitness of a woman, in this scenario from yesteryears is so outdated and old-fashioned that nowadays, women not only handle home and a career but manage a complete overall personal growth. Further, she talked about this role reversal; many of the women lately are a victim of obesity and poor fitness regime. Due to the stress of juggling a home and career, many women are facing a lot of difficulties associated with their health due to lack of exercise and proper physical workouts. She further stressed upon the contribution being made by girls in every field whether sports, literature, science, education etc. Then the speaker ended her talk by doing a various fitness exercise with our students. The prize winners of various competitions conducted by the cell also distributed by the chief guest. The program concluded with vote of thanks by Dr.V.Shyamala, Assistant Professor & Women cell member, Department of Microbiology. The program was anchored by Ms.V.Menaha, III –B.Sc. Biochemistry
Outcome of the event	The staffs and students were benefited by learning the fitness exercise.

Name of the department	Chemistry
Name of the event organized	Students Activity
Title of the event	World Food Day
Date of the event organized	13-10-2021
Name of the coordinator of the event	Dr.L.Parimala
Class of the participants	B.Sc Chemistry students and staffs members
Objective of the event	To increase awareness among students about the importance of food and raise awareness of issues regarding poverty and hunger.
Description of the event	In commemoration of World Food Day, Chemistry Department students participated in an E Poster presentation on 13th october. Students described how globalisation, urbanisation and income growth changes our diets and eating habits. Instead of seasonal, fiber-rich food and plant-based food we have shifted to refined, starches, sugar, fats, salt, processed food, meat, etc. In urban areas the time spent preparing food or meals is very less because people these days rely on ready made food, supermarkets, fast food, and street food. Due to unhealthy diets and sedentary lifestyles obesity in people is increasing in developed, low-income countries.
Outcome of the event	The event helped students to learn about the use of traditional and local foods for a healthy lifestyle.

Objective of the Event	To inspire students to explore and comprehend one of the earliest forms of literature, as well as to understand its relevance in modern works.
Description of the Event	To commemorate the World Folklore Day, discussion was organised among student and faculties. Ms. S.Priyanka, Assistant Professor, Department of English, introduced the students to the origins and evolution of folktale literature. She then proceeded to discuss numerous sub genres in folklore literature. Following that, faculty members presented their understanding of the subject and narrated folktale from across the world. Mrs. Deivika Prema, Assistant Professor, Department of English, focused on the fundamental patterns of Indian folktales and how they have influenced Indian culture.

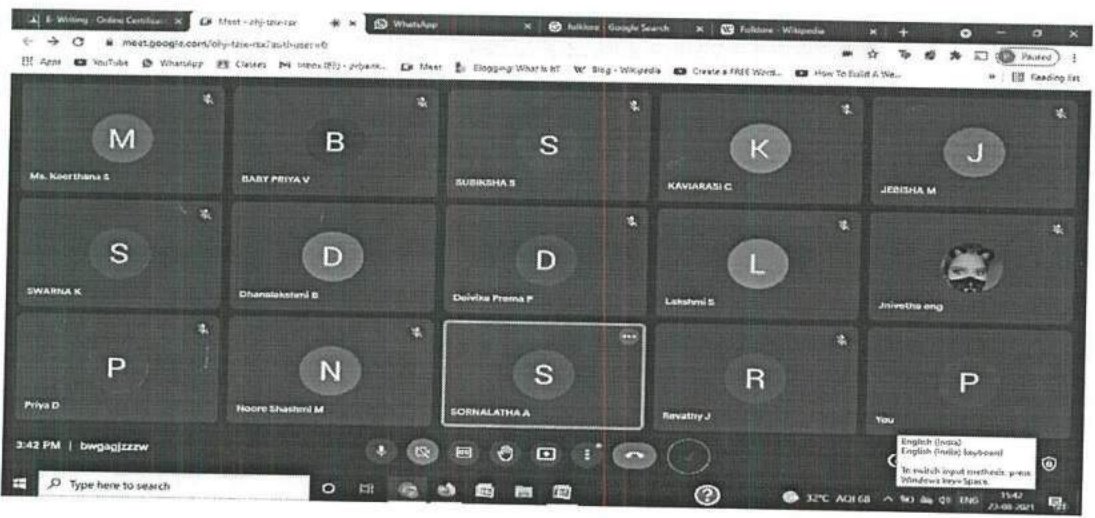

Through the narrative of Cupid and Psyche, Mrs. Dhanalakshmi, Assistant Professor, Department of English, focused on Greek folktales and myth. Ms. Keerthana, Assistant Professor, Department of English, discussed the contemporary state of folklore literature as well as its place in Postcolonial literatures.

Following this interaction, students from both the PG and UG shared their understanding and observations of folktales and myths in general, as well as their favourite stories, with the audience. Overall, the discussion focused on many aspects of folklore literature from all across the world, enlightening students with new knowledge on heretofore unrecognized components of oral literature.

Outcome of the Event

The students have developed fundamental understanding of folklore literature and comprehended its interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary significance in area of literature.
