IQAC, IIC & ED CELL EVENT ORGANISED REPORT (2023-2024)

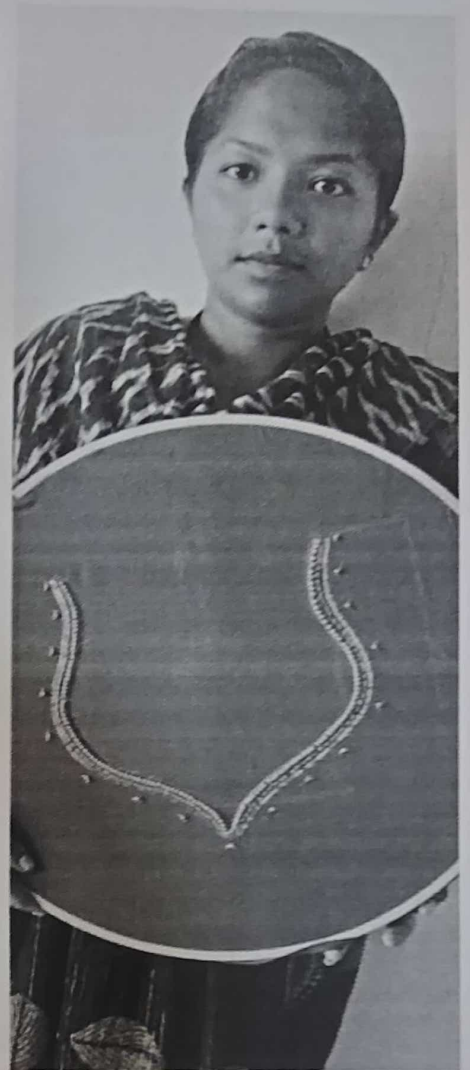

Name of the club	IQAC, IIC & ED CELL
Name of the event organized	VOCATIONAL TRAINING PROGRAM
Title of the event	AARI EMBROIDERY WORKSHOP
Date of the event organized	18/03/2024 to 22/03/2024
Name of the coordinator of the event	Ms.Sreekeerthana. V
Participants	Students, Staffs and Members of IIC, ED Cell
No. of participants	32
Name of the expert with the designation	Kum. Mohana C, Aari Embroidery Instructor, Central Palmgur & Plam Products Institute, Khadi & Village Industries Commission.
Objective of the event	The AARI Embroidery Workshop aims to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding and hands-on experience in the intricate art of AARI embroidery. The objectives include teaching fundamental techniques, fostering creativity, enhancing skill levels, promoting cultural heritage, and empowering participants. Through expert guidance and practical exercises, participants will learn basic stitches, explore design concepts, and develop proficiency in AARI embroidery. By delving into the cultural significance of this traditional Indian craft, we seek to instill a deeper appreciation for its heritage and techniques. Ultimately, our goal is to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to pursue Aari Embroidery as a fulfilling career or creative outlet, contributing to the preservation and continued relevance of this timeless art form.
Description of the event	The Aari Embroidery Workshop, organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Institution Innovation Cell (IIC) of Annai Violet Arts & Science College in association with Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC) Chennai, was held from 18th March to 22nd March 2024. This collaborative effort aimed to provide participants

	with an immersive learning experience in the traditional craft of Aari embroidery, emphasizing skill development and cultural preservation to develop students entrepreneurship skill. Throughout the five-day workshop, participants were introduced to the rich history and significance of Aari embroidery, setting the context for hands-on learning. Experienced artisans and instructors from KVIC Chennai led the sessions, offering expertise and guidance in mastering Aari embroidery techniques. The workshop curriculum was meticulously designed to cover various aspects of Aari embroidery, including basic stitches, pattern design, and intricate detailing. Participants were actively engaged in practical exercises, allowing them to apply newly acquired knowledge and skills under the guidance of expert instructors. Furthermore, the workshop facilitated interaction and collaboration among participants, fostering a sense of community and shared learning. Participants exchanged ideas, techniques, and experiences, enriching the overall learning environment. The partnership between Annai Violet Arts & Science College, IQAC, IIC, and KVIC Chennai proved instrumental in the success of the workshop, ensuring access to quality instruction and resources for all participants.
Outcome of the event	The Aari Embroidery Workshop served as a platform for skill enhancement, cultural exchange, and community engagement. By promoting the heritage craft of Aari embroidery, this initiative contributes to the preservation of traditional Indian art forms and empowers individuals to explore new avenues of creativity and self-expression.
