Name of the expert with the designation	Dr.P.E.R. Premchand- Joint Secretary, Annai Violet Arts & Science College
Objective of the event	The National Education Day observance aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, a prominent educationist and the first Minister of Education in independent India. The event sought to inspire and educate students about the importance of education and innovation in shaping a progressive society. It also provided an opportunity for faculty and students to engage in discussions on the advancements in education and its role in nation-building.
Description of the event	The event began with a welcome address by Dr.S.Radha, Head PG& Research Department of Commerce. The significance of National Education Day and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's contributions to education were highlighted. Dr. P.E.R. Premchand, a distinguished scholar and educator, delivered the keynote address. His speech focused on the evolution of education in India, challenges faced by the education system, and the need for innovation in teaching and learning methods. Dr. Premchand also emphasized the

	importance of holistic education and its impact on personal and professional growth. An interactive session followed the keynote address, allowing students and faculty to engage with Dr. Permchand. Participants asked questions and shared their perspectives on the topics discussed. A panel discussion was held on the theme "Innovative Approaches in Education." The panel consisted of faculty members and education experts who shared their insights and experiences. Topics covered included the integration of technology in education, interdisciplinary learning, and the role of educators in fostering innovation. The event concluded with a closing remark from the organizers, summarizing key takeaways and thanking the resource person and participants. Participants were encouraged to apply the knowledge gained to their academic and professional pursuits.
Outcome of the event	The observance of National Education Day at Annai Violet Arts and Science College was an enlightening experience for all participants. The event provided a platform for discussing the current state of education and exploring innovative solutions to improve the quality and accessibility of education. The successful organization of the event demonstrated the college's commitment to promoting educational excellence and fostering a culture of continuous improvement.
